(This report was issued on Tuesday, January 13, 2015)

Rain kept most harvesters from picking up the pecans this last week and gusty winds helped bring down the remaining nuts left on the trees. Harvesting in the middle and northern areas of the state will resume once the orchard floors are dry enough to get equipment in. Temperatures throughout the state for the next week should be milder with lows in the low to mid-30s and highs in the high 40s to mid-50s, warming up over the weekend with daytime highs in the low 60s. The southern areas of the state will be slightly warmer.

Deliveries are very light and moisture is showing up in the offerings. Lots of export quality Blends with 43-50% meat yield (nut count under 60) sold in a range of about $4.00-4.32 per point. Blends with meat yields of 40-43% sold in a range of about $3.00-3.45 per point.

OKLAHOMA (via: Oklahoma Department of Agriculture Market News Service)

Deliveries by growers to buying points extremely light as season draws to a close. Most pecans are spoken for as buyers looking out-of-state for supplies. Overall quality of most recent offerings show high moisture and the pecans have high nut count.

The weather forecast for the week calls for highs in the low 50s to low 60s and lows in the upper 20s to mid-30s.

No interest reported from out-of-state shellers. Accumulator demand was light to moderate. No Improved varieties reported.

THIS IS THE LAST OKLAHOMA PECAN MARKET REPORT OF THE SEASON. THE NEXT OKLAHOMA PECAN REPORT IS EXPECTED TO BE RELEASED IN LATE OCTOBER OR EARLY NOVEMBER, 2015.

The formula to figure out dollars per point and cents per pound: Cents per pound divided by meat yield = dollar per point. Dollar per point (X) times meat yield = Cents per pound.
