PRICES PAID TO GROWERS

GEORGIA (via: Phoenix, Arizona)

The pecan season continues to get underway across Georgia. Pawnee, Seedlings, Stuarts and Moneymakers are showing up on the market and some Elliott, Desirables and possibly Cape Fear will be ready to market this week depending upon the weather.

This past week, temperatures ranged from lows in the lower 50s to upper 60s, and highs in the upper 60s to mid-80s. There was some precipitation this past weekend, but otherwise, the past week saw little in the way of precipitation. The upcoming week has projected lows in the mid-40s to mid-60s, highs in the mid-60s to low 80s, and a 20 percent chance of precipitation on Tuesday, October 13. On Saturday, October 17, chances of precipitation return, as will be the case for most of the week to follow.

Many buyers are preparing to open their doors for business this week, with most others anticipating being underway by the end of next week.

Prices paid to growers (October 6 through October 13, 2015) at buyers delivery point or F.O.B. the orchard including direct sales to end users, cents per pound in-shell of generally good quality. Very light sales were reported. Prices include trailer load lots and lots under 20,000 pounds.

Pawnee (deliveries very light) 54-56% meat yield (nut count 50-54) 300 smaller nuts counting 60-69 brought in 260-285 cents per pound.

Seedlings (deliveries very light) yard tree lots 70-75

Moneymakers (deliveries very light) yard tree lots 100

Stuart (deliveries very light) yard tree lots 100-125
