PRICES PAID TO GROWERS

GEORGIA (via: Forest Park-Atlanta, GA)

Deliveries are starting to pick up this week. Blends are coming onto the market and prices should be available next week when deliveries increase. Some of the effects of Hurricane Irma and other weather related issues have had an impact on the pecans. A little bit of black rot is showing up and growers are blowing out up to thirty percent of debris and decay. Overall the pecans look good and prices remain strong.

The export trade business, domestic and the retail gift-pack businesses are active and prices remain about steady, on the slightly higher side.

Weather conditions forecast for this week call for evening lows in the high 40s to high 50s and daytime temperatures in the high 70s and low 80s throughout most of the state.

Prices paid to growers (late afternoon October 17, through late afternoon October 19, 2017) at buyers delivery point or F.O.B. the orchard including direct sales to end users, cents per pound in-shell of generally good quality in lots of 20,000 pounds or less unless otherwise stated.
